

Acanthoscelides obtectus, the Bean bruchid

Primary pest on pulses (beans, broad bean and Bambara groundnuts). Infestation starts in field itself. Occur commonly in temperate regions. Adults non-feeding and can fly. Adult with long antennae, patterned elytra with final segments of abdomen exposed